ASSISTANT COUNTY ATTORNEY

EXHIBIT A

LICENSE AGREEMENT ADDENDUM

The County School Board of Henrico County, Virginia] (“County”) and Follett Content Solutions, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company, (“Licensor”), are entering into a Non-Professional Services Contract 2500A (“Agreement”). Licensor has requested that its "Terms of Use - Follet School Solutions" dated August 29, 2022 (“Contract”) be incorporated by reference into the Agreement. This License Agreement Addendum (“LAA”) (i) is attached to the Agreement and incorporated therein by reference, governing the use of all software licensed by the County thereunder (“Software”), and (ii) modifies and supersedes the Contract to the extent the Contract and the LAA are in conflict.

For good and valuable consideration, the parties agree as follows:

1. Certain provisions may appear in or be incorporated by reference into the Contract that the County does not accept. If any of the following provisions appear in the Contract, or if any provisions in the Contract have the effect of any of the following, such provisions are void, will not have any effect, and will not be enforceable against the County:
 - A. Requiring the application of the law of any place other than the Commonwealth of Virginia, United States of America in interpreting or enforcing the Contract;
 - B. Requiring or permitting that any dispute under the Contract be resolved in any court other than a state court of competent jurisdiction in Henrico County, Virginia;
 - C. Requiring any total or partial compensation or payment for lost profits or liquidated damages by the County if the Contract is terminated early;
 - D. Imposing any interest rate in excess of one percent per month or the default interest rate under Title 2, Chapter 43, Article 4 of the Code of Virginia, whichever is lower;
 - E. Requiring the County to maintain insurance for Licensor’s benefit;
 - F. Granting Licensor a security interest in any property of the County;
 - G. Requiring the County to indemnify, defend, or hold harmless Licensor or any entity or person for any act or omission of the County, including the County’s officers, agents, and employees;
 - H. Limiting or adding to the time period within which claims can be made or actions can be brought pursuant to Title 8.01, Chapter 3 of the Code of Virginia;
 - I. Restricting or prohibiting the County’s selection and approval of counsel or approval of any settlement;
 - J. Binding the County to any arbitration or otherwise committing the County to participate in any binding form of alternative dispute resolution;
 - K. Obligating the County to pay costs of collection or attorney’s fees;
 - L. Requiring any dispute resolution procedure(s) other than the default available under the Virginia Public Procurement Act;
 - M. Requiring the County to limit its rights or waive its remedies at law or in equity;

- N. Establishing a presumption of severe or irreparable harm to Licensor by the actions or inactions of the County;
 - O. Limiting the liability of Licensor for property damage, death, or personal injury;
 - P. Capping the County's damages or excluding types of damages available to the County;
 - Q. Applying UCITA except as may be required by Section 59.1-501.15 of the Code of Virginia;
 - R. Not complying with all applicable federal, state, and local laws, regulations, and ordinances;
 - S. Requiring that the County waive any immunity to which it is lawfully entitled;
 - T. Requiring that the County, which is tax exempt, be responsible for payment of any taxes, duties, or penalties;
 - U. Obligating the County beyond approved and appropriated funding;
 - V. Permitting Licensor to unilaterally modify the Contract;
 - W. Having the Contract supersede agreements negotiated by the parties;
 - X. Renewing or extending the Contract beyond the term set forth in the Agreement or automatically renewing the Contract;
 - Y. Requiring the purchase of a new release, update, or upgrade of Software, or subsequent renewal or maintenance, in order for the County to receive or maintain the benefits of Licensor's indemnification of the County against any claims of infringement on any third-party intellectual property rights;
 - Z. Prohibiting the County from transferring or assigning to any entity the Contract or any license to Software granted pursuant to the Contract; or
 - AA. Making the County liable to pay Licensor's travel expenses, including transportation, meals, lodging, and incidental expenses, other than those explicitly approved by the County in advance.
 - BB. Imposing confidentiality restrictions upon the County in violation of the Virginia Freedom of Information Act.
2. Licensor represents and warrants that it is the owner of the Software or otherwise has the right to grant to the County the license to use the Software without violating or infringing any law, rule, regulation, copyright, patent, trade secret, or other proprietary right of any third party.
 3. Licensor agrees to indemnify, defend and hold harmless the County and the County's officers, agents, and employees, from any claims, damages, suits, actions, liabilities and costs of any kind or nature, including attorneys' fees, that arise out of or result from: (i) any negligent act, negligent omission, or intentional or willful conduct of any employee, contractor, or agent of Licensor; (ii) any material breach of any representation, warranty, or covenant of Licensor; (iii) any defect in the Software; or (iv) any actual or alleged infringement or misappropriation of any third party's intellectual property rights by any of the Software.
 4. All payment obligations from the County under the Contract are subject to receipt of necessary appropriations from the Henrico County, Virginia Board of Supervisors. In the event of non-appropriation of funds for the items under the Contract, the County may terminate, in whole or in part, the Contract or any order for those goods or services for which funds have not been appropriated. This may extend to the renewal of maintenance services for only some of the licenses granted by Licensor. There will be no time limit for termination due to termination for lack of appropriations.

5. If Licensor provides any update or upgrade subject to additional payment or subject to the acceptance of additional terms and conditions, the County will have the right to reject such update or upgrade.
6. The person signing below for Licensor represents and warrants that he or she is duly authorized to execute and deliver this LAA on Licensor's behalf.
7. This LAA and the Agreement shall take effect simultaneously.
8. This LAA may be modified by the parties' mutual agreement. Any modifications shall be reflected in a separate document.

1. Terms of Use:

These Terms apply to all users of the Services, but depending on the Services used by you, not all Terms may be applicable. As a user of the Services ("you" or "your"), you agree that these Terms are a binding contract that applies to all of your use of the Services and the products you purchase through the Services. You agree that you will comply with these Terms. If you do not agree with these Terms, you should not use our Services. Consent to receive text messages is not a condition of purchase.

These Terms are effective as of the effective date identified above. These Terms are subject to change, without notice, so we encourage you to periodically review the Terms posted on the Services. Any changes will be posted on this site, become effective immediately and will govern the use of the Services, and purchases made through the Services.

Additional or different terms may apply to some offerings on our Services, such as return policies for certain products or Services, contests, or sweepstakes. Those terms will be posted on the Services in connection with the relevant offering. If the other terms are inconsistent with these Terms, the other terms will govern for the relevant offering.

The Services may contain links to goods, services or content, including third-party stores where products may be available for purchase that are not under Follett School Solutions' control. The information presented is made available solely for general informational purposes only. Follett School Solutions is not responsible for the content of those offerings and will not be liable for any damages or loss caused by your use of or reliance on such goods and services or content. 2. Restrictions on Use of Services:

By using the Services, you represent to us that you are (1) at least 18 years of age or are using the Services under the supervision of your parent or guardian, (2) able to enter into a binding contract, and (3) using the Services only as they are intended. All other use of the Services is prohibited.

3. Standards of Conduct:

To maintain the integrity of our Services and the user experience of all users of the Services, you agree not to misuse our Services or their content. For example, you must not do (or try to do) any of the following, or encourage or assist others to do any of the following:

- Disrupt, interfere or attempt to disrupt or interfere with the normal operation and navigation of the Services or the availability of the Services to other users.
- Circumvent any measures we use to limit access to the Services or particular content available on the Services.
- Access the Services using any unauthorized "robot," "spider," "scraper" or other automated means.
- Use a false name or contact information, impermissibly impersonate any person or entity, or otherwise misrepresent your identity, affiliation or the origin of materials you transmit.
- Display the Services, or any of their content, in a "frame," in connection with any other content or trademark, or in any other way that could potentially deprive us of revenue or falsely suggest a relationship between us and any third party.
- Make any commercial use of the Services or their content, including collection or use of information concerning our product offerings, descriptions, images, prices and sales volumes.
- Maintain any link to the Services from any commercial website, or maintain any other link that we ask you to remove.
- Transmit to or through the Services any viruses, spyware, adware or other harmful code.
- Disassemble, decompile or otherwise reverse engineer any software or other technology used in or available through the Services.
- Use the Services to advertise or promote any goods or services other than ours.
- Use the Services to transmit or collect personal information about, or act illegally or maliciously towards, other users.
- Use the Services, or any content from the Services, to advertise or solicit for any other person, entity or cause, or otherwise to compete with us or act illegally or maliciously against our business interests or reputation.
- Use the Services in a manner not in accordance with all state and local legislation and applicable district rules, policies and mandates.

If you violate this Section, we may terminate your access to the Services, take other remedial actions, and seek any remedies permitted by law.

Confidentiality. You may, depending on your relationship with us, your use of the Services, or the types of transactions you engaged in with us,, come into contact with confidential information of Follett School Solutions, including, but not limited to, trade secrets, methods, details about the Services or products offered, and business or marketing plans ("Confidential Information"). The Confidential Information is owned solely by Follett School Solutions and is considered to be proprietary and confidential. You agree to hold the Confidential Information in strict confidence and take reasonable measures to keep it secure. Your agreements contained in this paragraph shall survive the termination your account, your use of the Services, and/or the expiration of these Terms.

4. Accounts:

Some of our Services offer you the opportunity to create a user account to access additional functionality such as making online purchases, or may require you to establish a user account to utilize a Service. This Section, "Accounts," establishes additional terms that apply to such accounts.

You may only create and hold one account for each of the Services, and, unless you are granted administrative rights on behalf of a school or school district, you may not use anyone else's account. When we request information from you to set up an account, you must provide us with accurate and complete information. You also must update your account when information you have provided to us changes. To update your account information, click on the "Account" link or other applicable account settings on the relevant Services.

You are responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of your user account login names and passwords, and you must not permit use of your account by anyone else. You acknowledge that properly authorized administrative personnel within your school or school district may access your account for supervisory purposes. Except for cases where such authorized personnel have accessed your account or others have impermissibly accessed your account, you accept responsibility for all activities that occur under your account, including without limitation product purchases made using your account. If you have reason to believe that someone is using your account without your permission, you should contact us immediately. We are not responsible for any loss or damage resulting from unauthorized use of your account.

You authorize us to use the contact information you provide us to communicate with you about your orders and our Services and products. You agree that all agreements, notices, disclosures and other communications that we provide to you electronically, through posting or email, satisfy any legal requirement that such communications be in writing. You may opt out of receiving marketing e-mails from us by following the opt-out instructions provided to you in those e-mails.

We provide most of our products and services (e.g., Destiny, Aspen, IB Store, Axis 360) to end-users of an organization as a 'data processor' on behalf of our clients (i.e., school districts, schools, libraries, and businesses). A data controller is a person, company, or other body that determines the purpose and means of personal data processing (this can be determined alone, or jointly with another person/company/body). It also means that your organization's privacy statement governs the use of your personal information (instead of ours). Please read your organization's privacy statement. Your organization determines what information we collect through our products, services and how it is used. We process your information according to your organization's instructions and the terms of our contracts with your organization. By using the Website, you consent to all actions taken by us with respect to your information in compliance with the Privacy Policy.

We reserve the right to terminate your access to your account at any time, without notice, in our sole discretion for any or no reason, including but not limited to inactivity or misuse. If access to your account is terminated, you may lose access to any information stored in connection with your account, and any promotional account credits and any other forms of value that may be associated with your account. Upon termination, these Terms shall continue to apply to any other use of the Services that you are permitted to make.

You may disable your account at any time by contacting a customer service representative of the applicable Service. Your account will only be disabled after you have returned all books that have been rented to you (if any) and all transactions have been processed including payment of assessed penalties or the cashing of any refund check.

5. Mobile Services:

Some of the Services may have features of the Services targeted to users of wireless devices (“Mobile Features”), including an SMS and/or MMS messaging program (“Messaging Program”). Your wireless provider may charge for use of Mobile Features, including fees for receipt of text messages or data transmission. In order to receive Mobile Features, your wireless provider may require you to subscribe to additional services, which may require additional fees. These fees are not charged by us, and you should contact your wireless provider before you sign up for Mobile Features to determine what fees, if any, will be charged.

By signing up for a Messaging Program, you agree to receive up to five (5) SMS and/or MMS messages per week. We may use autodialer or non-autodialer technology to send the text messages described above to the mobile phone number you use to opt in. Consenting to receive SMS and/or MMS messages is not a condition of purchase. Message and data rates may apply. Depending on your text plan you may be charged by your carrier. The service is a recurring message program.

To stop receiving messages, reply STOP to any message received. Once your telephone number is removed from our system, you will receive a final confirmation message and no further messages will be sent to your cell phone or mobile device.

By signing up for a Mobile Service, you agree that we may communicate with you (including, without limitation, by way of third-party messaging services) via SMS and/or MMS messaging to your mobile phone or device, and that certain information about your usage of the Mobile Service may be communicated to us. In the event you change or deactivate your mobile phone number, you agree to promptly update your account information to ensure that our messages intended for you are not sent to the person who acquires your old number. By signing up for a Mobile Service, including any Messaging Program, you agree to all of the other Terms laid out herein, including, but not limited to, Section 13 (Arbitration/Choice of Law) and Section 14 (Disclaimer/Limitation of Liability). You also agree to be bound by our Privacy Policy.

Carriers are not liable for delayed or undelivered messages.

6. Purchases:

Some of our Services offer you the opportunity to order products. This Section, "Purchases," states additional terms that apply to such orders.

Product Availability. Not all products are available in all styles, sizes, and colors.

Pricing and Availability. When you order a product, the price will be made clear during the order process. All prices are in U.S. Dollars, except where otherwise noted. You agree to pay the price that is stated in your order, as well as any applicable taxes and shipping expenses, where applicable. While we try to provide accurate pricing information on our Services, a price stated on a Service occasionally may be in error. If in processing your order we determine that the correct price is less than the stated price, we will charge you the lower price. If we determine that the correct price is higher than the stated price, we are not obligated to fulfill your order at the stated price. We will attempt to notify you using the contact information provided in connection with your order, and we will give you the choice to cancel your order or pay the correct price.

We cannot guarantee that all items displayed will be in stock at the time of your order. With respect to items rented through our website, we cannot confirm the price of an item until you place an order.

Product Descriptions. We try to be accurate when we describe and depict products on our Services. However, with regard to clothing, certain measures and other descriptions are only approximate. We also cannot guarantee that images we provide will be displayed properly on your device, or that our product descriptions and images, including depictions of color, texture and proportions, will always be complete, reliable, current and error-free. If you purchase a product from one of our Services that you believe is not as described or depicted, you may return it to the extent provided in the applicable return policy described below.

Taxes. Rentals and purchases through the Services may be subject to taxes in certain states. Depending on your state and the nature of the product or service you receive from us, you may incur rental tax, sales tax and/or use tax. Tax rates are different from state to state. You are responsible for paying all such taxes.

Discounts and Promotions. The specific terms of any discounts or other promotions are stated at the time they are offered. Promotions cannot be combined unless we specifically state otherwise. Eligibility for any promotions is determined at the time of your order.

Clearance Items. Products designated as "clearance" items will not return to higher, prior selling prices, but the same items may have been offered previously at or below the current price. Clearance items may (1) be available in limited quantities and sizes, (2) remain on the Services for only short times, and (3) be unavailable in stores. Clearance items are not returnable or refundable.

Ordering. When you click the "Place Order" button on a Service, you make an offer to buy the relevant products. While we may confirm receipt and processing of orders by email, such confirmation does not constitute our acceptance of your order. We cannot guarantee that all items displayed on your order confirmation will be in stock at the time your order is shipped. We reserve the right to reject or cancel any order, in whole or in part, at any time prior to shipping. If we do, we will attempt to notify you using the contact information provided in connection with your order. You agree not to try to exceed stated quantity limits (except where specifically noted), violate the terms of any specific offer or promotion, or place orders through the Services if we have notified you that you are prohibited from placing orders through the Services.

Payment. We accept only the payment methods indicated on the Services. When you provide payment information, you represent that the information is accurate and that you are authorized to use the payment method provided. If your payment method has expired or is otherwise invalid when processed, you remain responsible for payment, and for all costs we incur in collecting any unpaid amounts, including, but not limited to, attorney and collections fees.

Shipping to our Retail Customers. Shipping options and applicable charges for our retail customers will be stated during the order process. The U.S. Postal Service delivers to P.O. boxes, but this method may delay your order. Please note that Next Business Day and 2nd Business Day shipping options are not available for delivery to P.O. boxes. We will send you emails with updates on your order's status as they become available. Additional charges may apply for shipments to Alaska and Hawaii.

Stated shipping times and delivery estimates are only estimates and are not binding. If a product becomes unavailable between ordering and processing, we will cancel your order and attempt to notify you using the contact information provided in connection with your order. Legal title to products, and the risk of loss or damage to the products is transferred to you when products are provided to the carrier. We are not responsible for any delivery delays. You will be responsible for filing any claims with the carrier for damaged and/or lost shipments.

Shipping to our Wholesale Customers. Shipping to our institutional wholesale customers shall be subject to the terms disclosed to you at the time of purchase or by the terms mutually agreed upon in writing by you and Follett School Solutions.

International Shipping. Shipping to addresses outside the U.S. is available on a limited basis and may be subject to additional terms, fees, and restrictions. Such information will be provided during the checkout process. If you have any questions or require additional information about shipping to addresses outside the U.S. please contact us using the information in Section 17 below.

Returns. We hope you are happy with the products you purchase. However, most items we sell may be returned to us under certain circumstances, as explained in the return policy posted on the relevant Services. We reserve the right to refuse to issue a refund or credit, and the right to recover the cost of return delivery from you, if any product you return (1) is not eligible for return, in accordance with the relevant return policy or the terms of any specific offer or promotion, or (2) is found to have suffered damage after delivery to you, including as a result of having been misused by you. We take legal title to returned products only after they arrive and are processed at our designated returns location.

Return terms and policies may vary by Service. Please check the return policy of the Service for details where you are making the purchase. Where the Return terms and policies are different from what is stated above in these Terms, the specific Return terms and policies govern the return.

Follett School Solutions (K12) Customer Support: 1-888-511-5114

Gift Certificates. Gift certificates purchased through the Services will be considered to have been purchased in and issued from the State of Illinois. Title and the risk of loss to such gift certificates pass to the purchaser upon our electronic transmission to the recipient.

7. Follett School Solutions Brand-Specific Terms

Follett School Solutions. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth herein, the following shall apply to any orders submitted through a Follett School Solutions website. Unless otherwise indicated, all prices are in U.S. dollars. Software products are sold subject to their applicable Software License Agreement. Hardware, scanners, scanning supplies and related products are sold subject to the manufacturer's warranty (if any) enclosed in manufacturer's packaging, unless an extended maintenance agreement has been purchased above and beyond the manufacturer's warranty. Follett School Solutions reserves a purchase money security interest in any goods ordered on our site until such goods are paid for in full. All delivery is FOB your location. Prices are Follett School Solutions' net prices to schools and libraries and are subject to change. Applicable sales tax will be added to your invoice unless you submit evidence of tax exemption. Stated shipping times and delivery estimates are only estimates and are not binding. If a product becomes unavailable between ordering and processing, we may substitute with a comparable product and process the remainder of your order.

Profile information provided with registration for the Community Forums (e.g. name) may be displayed with the content. This Section 8, "Community Forums and User Content," states additional terms that apply to User Content.

When you provide User Content, you grant us a nonexclusive, worldwide, royalty-free, perpetual, irrevocable, fully sub-licensable license to use, reproduce, create derivative works of, distribute, perform, display and in any other way exploit the User Content by any means now known or developed in the future, and for any purpose, including for developing, manufacturing, and marketing products and in advertising. You agree that (1) User Content is not being provided to us in confidence; (2) there is no confidential or fiduciary relationship between you and us; and (3) you have no expectation that we will review, acknowledge or compensate you for your User Content.

To avoid the possibility of misunderstandings, our policy is not to accept creative ideas, product designs, proposals, business plans or similar materials provided as User Content. Please do not provide us with such materials. If you nonetheless do so, the immediately preceding paragraph will apply.

You bear all responsibility for your User Content. You agree not to provide User Content that (1) violates applicable law; (2) is harmful, abusive, offensive, false, threatening, disparaging, defamatory or racist; (3) promotes violence or unlawful activity; (4) violates any person's or entity's legal rights (including intellectual property, privacy and publicity rights); or (5) purports to speak on behalf of us. When you provide User Content, you represent that you have the right to provide it to us and that it is not inaccurate, false or misleading.

We may refuse or remove User Content without notice to you. We may monitor User Content but are not required to do so. You agree that we will not be liable for any loss or damage resulting from your User Content or similar submissions made by other users.

The relevant terms will be posted where information is collected to enter into the contest or sweepstakes. If the other terms are inconsistent with these Terms, the other terms will govern for that contest or sweepstakes.

QUESTIONS FOR CLARIFICATION

1. Will Follett still honor the lifetime guarantee for FollettBound books if Follett is not the vendor of choice?

Yes, the FollettBound guarantee will still be honored.

Every FollettBound binding is also accompanied by a lifetime guarantee! FollettBound books will be replaced due to any binding failures and defects (normal wear and tear excluded). Only titles that are still in print when the request is made shall be eligible for replacement, as determined by Follett in its sole discretion.

2. Will Follett only replace a book as long as it is in print, or will Follett issue a credit to replace that item if the book is out of print?

Follett offers guarantees on our FollettBound book binding and publisher hardcover book bindings, but does not offer a guarantee on paperback book bindings. Once a title is out of print a credit will not be issued.

Publisher hardcover books will be replaced due to any binding failures and defects (excluding normal wear and tear) for one year. Only titles that are still in print when the request is made shall be eligible for replacement, as determined by Follett in its sole discretion.

3. Is there a way to run TitleWise analyses without having to extract records for each individual school? Can this be scheduled to run automatically?

Yes, HCPS will extract the district MARC record holdings from SIRSI. The file would be transferred to Follett via our ftp server. Then we would process them into individual school files and complete their analysis for them. A Collection Analysis Specialist will be assigned to assist with this process. A schedule can be set established to update the analysis as needed (usually quarterly, bi-annually, or annually.)

4. Will Follett offer HCPS a 10% discount on books, and a 5% Gift Certificate on total orders as opposed to the other two options being offered?

Follett Content Solutions, LLC would like to extend the Best and Final offer and incentives to Henrico County Public Schools (HCPS). Upon award of this RFP, HCPS will receive:

- ✓ Application of Barcode with protective label (standard placement)*
- ✓ Protective Mylar on books with dust jackets
- ✓ Spine Label with protective label

- ✓ School Property label

Please note: Barcode label placement that differs from the standard placement will incur an additional 13¢ per item. Standard placement positioning is explained in detail within Follett's Book Processing & Cataloging Guide.

 - ✓ Electronic MARC
 - ✓ Spine and cover labels
 - ✓ Barcode label and protector

This offer is valid through 6/30/2028.

5. The RFP states that there may be two new schools within the next five (5) years. In your proposal you have an expiration date listed for the special offer for any new schools. Will Follett consider removing this expiration date and make the offer available to any new schools opened during the term of the contract?

Please see the above Best and Final Offer. The Expiration date has been updated to 6/30/28.

6. The RFP states that there could be multiple awards. Would there be a charge for any services that are currently included in your proposal if Follett were not the primary vendor? (i.e. training etc.)

No, there would be no charge for any of the services listed in the proposal if Follett were not the primary vendor.

Christopher Hutto, will be available to assist, at no charge, with online training and will assist in any projects that may include collection development and acquisitions.

- Horn Book Magazine
- Kirkus Reviews
- Library Journal

8. How does Follett correct cataloging when the ISBN is the same for different years?

This will be for new records moving forward; existing records already in use by customers will not be updated.

4. Accounts:

Some of our Services offer you the opportunity to create a user account to access additional functionality such as making online purchases, or may require you to establish a user account to utilize a Service. This Section, "Accounts," establishes additional terms that apply to such accounts.

You may only create and hold one account for each of the Services, and, unless you are granted administrative rights on behalf of a school or school district, you may not use anyone else's account. When we request information from you to set up an account, you must provide us with accurate and complete information. You also must update your account when information you have provided to us changes. To update your account information, click on the "Account" link or other applicable account settings on the relevant Services.

You are responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of your user account login names and passwords, and you must not permit use of your account by anyone else. You acknowledge that properly authorized administrative personnel within your school or school district may access your account for supervisory purposes. Except for cases where such authorized personnel have accessed your account or others have impermissibly accessed your account, you accept responsibility for all activities that occur under your account, including without limitation product purchases made using your account. If you have reason to believe that someone is using your account without your permission, you should contact us immediately. We are not responsible for any loss or damage resulting from unauthorized use of your account.

You authorize us to use the contact information you provide us to communicate with you about your orders and our Services and products. You agree that all agreements, notices, disclosures and other communications that we provide to you electronically, through posting or email, satisfy any legal requirement that such communications be in writing. You may opt out of receiving marketing e-mails from us by following the opt-out instructions provided to you in those e-mails.

We provide most of our products and services (e.g., Destiny, Aspen, IB Store, Axis 360) to end-users of an organization as a 'data processor' on behalf of our clients (i.e., school districts, schools, libraries, and businesses). A data controller is a person, company, or other body that determines the purpose and means of personal data processing (this can be determined alone, or jointly with another person/company/body). It also means that your organization's privacy statement governs the use of your personal information (instead of ours). Please read your organization's privacy statement. Your organization determines what information we collect through our products, services and how it is used. We process your information according to your organization's instructions and the terms of our contracts with your organization. By using the Website, you consent to all actions taken by us with respect to your information in compliance with the Privacy Policy.

We reserve the right to terminate your access to your account at any time, without notice, in our sole discretion for any or no reason, including but not limited to inactivity or misuse. If access to your account is terminated, you may lose access to any information stored in connection with your account, and any promotional account credits and any other forms of value that may be associated with your account.

Upon termination, these Terms shall continue to apply to any other use of the Services that you are permitted to make.

You may disable your account at any time by contacting a customer service representative of the applicable Service. Your account will only be disabled after you have returned all books that have been rented to you (if any) and all transactions have been processed including payment of assessed penalties or the cashing of any refund check.

5. Mobile Services:

Some of the Services may have features of the Services targeted to users of wireless devices (“Mobile Features”), including an SMS and/or MMS messaging program (“Messaging Program”). Your wireless provider may charge for use of Mobile Features, including fees for receipt of text messages or data transmission. In order to receive Mobile Features, your wireless provider may require you to subscribe to additional services, which may require additional fees. These fees are not charged by us, and you should contact your wireless provider before you sign up for Mobile Features to determine what fees, if any, will be charged.

By signing up for a Messaging Program, you agree to receive up to five (5) SMS and/or MMS messages per week. We may use autodialer or non-autodialer technology to send the text messages described above to the mobile phone number you use to opt in. Consenting to receive SMS and/or MMS messages is not a condition of purchase. Message and data rates may apply. Depending on your text plan you may be charged by your carrier. The service is a recurring message program.

To stop receiving messages, reply STOP to any message received. Once your telephone number is removed from our system, you will receive a final confirmation message and no further messages will be sent to your cell phone or mobile device.

By signing up for a Mobile Service, you agree that we may communicate with you (including, without limitation, by way of third-party messaging services) via SMS and/or MMS messaging to your mobile phone or device, and that certain information about your usage of the Mobile Service may be communicated to us. In the event you change or deactivate your mobile phone number, you agree to promptly update your account information to ensure that our messages intended for you are not sent to the person who acquires your old number. By signing up for a Mobile Service, including any Messaging Program, you agree to all of the other Terms laid out herein, including, but not limited to, Section 13 (Arbitration/Choice of Law) and Section 14 (Disclaimer/Limitation of Liability). You also agree to be bound by our Privacy Policy.

Carriers are not liable for delayed or undelivered messages.

6. Purchases:

Some of our Services offer you the opportunity to order products. This Section, “Purchases,” states additional terms that apply to such orders.

Product Availability. Not all products are available in all styles, sizes, and colors.

Pricing and Availability. When you order a product, the price will be made clear during the order process. All prices are in U.S. Dollars, except where otherwise noted. You agree to pay the price that is stated in your order, as well as any applicable taxes and shipping expenses, where applicable. While we try to provide accurate pricing information on our Services, a price stated on a Service occasionally may be in error. If in processing your order we determine that the correct price is less than the stated price, we will charge you the lower price. If we determine that the correct price is higher than the stated price, we are not obligated to fulfill your order at the stated price. We will attempt to notify you using the contact information provided in connection with your order, and we will give you the choice to cancel your order or pay the correct price.

We cannot guarantee that all items displayed will be in stock at the time of your order. With respect to items rented through our website, we cannot confirm the price of an item until you place an order.

Product Descriptions. We try to be accurate when we describe and depict products on our Services. However, with regard to clothing, certain measures and other descriptions are only approximate. We also cannot guarantee that images we provide will be displayed properly on your device, or that our product descriptions and images, including depictions of color, texture and proportions, will always be complete, reliable, current and error-free. If you purchase a product from one of our Services that you believe is not as described or depicted, you may return it to the extent provided in the applicable return policy described below.

Taxes. Rentals and purchases through the Services may be subject to taxes in certain states. Depending on your state and the nature of the product or service you receive from us, you may incur rental tax, sales tax and/or use tax. Tax rates are different from state to state. You are responsible for paying all such taxes.

Discounts and Promotions. The specific terms of any discounts or other promotions are stated at the time they are offered. Promotions cannot be combined unless we specifically state otherwise. Eligibility for any promotions is determined at the time of your order.

Clearance Items. Products designated as “clearance” items will not return to higher, prior selling prices, but the same items may have been offered previously at or below the current price. Clearance items may (1) be available in limited quantities and sizes, (2) remain on the Services for only short times, and (3) be unavailable in stores. Clearance items are not returnable or refundable.

Ordering. When you click the “Place Order” button on a Service, you make an offer to buy the relevant products. While we may confirm receipt and processing of orders by email, such confirmation does not constitute our acceptance of your order. We cannot guarantee that all items displayed on your order confirmation will be in stock at the time your order is shipped. We reserve the right to reject or cancel any order, in whole or in part, at any time prior to shipping. If we do, we will attempt to notify you using the contact information provided in connection with your order. You agree not to try to exceed stated quantity limits (except where specifically noted), violate the terms of any specific offer or promotion, or place orders through the Services if we have notified you that you are prohibited from placing orders through the Services.

Payment. We accept only the payment methods indicated on the Services. When you provide payment information, you represent that the information is accurate and that you are authorized to use the payment method provided. If your payment method has expired or is otherwise invalid when processed, you remain responsible for payment, and for all costs we incur in collecting any unpaid amounts, including, but not limited to, attorney and collections fees.

Shipping to our Retail Customers. Shipping options and applicable charges for our retail customers will be stated during the order process. The U.S. Postal Service delivers to P.O. boxes, but this method may delay your order. Please note that Next Business Day and 2nd Business Day shipping options are not available for delivery to P.O. boxes. We will send you emails with updates on your order's status as they become available. Additional charges may apply for shipments to Alaska and Hawaii.

Stated shipping times and delivery estimates are only estimates and are not binding. If a product becomes unavailable between ordering and processing, we will cancel your order and attempt to notify you using the contact information provided in connection with your order. Legal title to products, and the risk of loss or damage to the products is transferred to you when products are provided to the carrier. We are not responsible for any delivery delays. You will be responsible for filing any claims with the carrier for damaged and/or lost shipments.

Shipping to our Wholesale Customers. Shipping to our institutional wholesale customers shall be subject to the terms disclosed to you at the time of purchase or by the terms mutually agreed upon in writing by you and Follett School Solutions.

International Shipping. Shipping to addresses outside the U.S. is available on a limited basis and may be subject to additional terms, fees, and restrictions. Such information will be provided during the checkout process. If you have any questions or require additional information about shipping to addresses outside the U.S. please contact us using the information in Section 17 below.

Returns. We hope you are happy with the products you purchase. However, most items we sell may be returned to us under certain circumstances, as explained in the return policy posted on the relevant Services. We reserve the right to refuse to issue a refund or credit, and the right to recover the cost of return delivery from you, if any product you return (1) is not eligible for return, in accordance with the relevant return policy or the terms of any specific offer or promotion, or (2) is found to have suffered damage after delivery to you, including as a result of having been misused by you. We take legal title to returned products only after they arrive and are processed at our designated returns location.

Return terms and policies may vary by Service. Please check the return policy of the Service for details where you are making the purchase. Where the Return terms and policies are different from what is stated above in these Terms, the specific Return terms and policies govern the return.

Follett School Solutions (K12) Customer Support: 1-888-511-5114

Gift Certificates. Gift certificates purchased through the Services will be considered to have been purchased in and issued from the State of Illinois. Title and the risk of loss to such gift certificates pass to the purchaser upon our electronic transmission to the recipient.

The relevant terms will be posted where information is collected to enter into the contest or sweepstakes. If the other terms are inconsistent with these Terms, the other terms will govern for that contest or sweepstakes.

10. Changes to Services:

- Change or discontinue the Services, and the products and promotions offered on the Services.
- Limit the availability of products.
- Change the prices of products.

We will not be liable to you or any third party for taking any of these actions.

11. Copyright, Trademarks, and other Intellectual Property:

We grant you a limited non-exclusive, non-transferrable license to access and use our Services for your personal, non-commercial use only in accordance with these Terms. Any commercial use; any unauthorized use of a "robot," "spider," "scraper" or other automated means; use in violation of the policy of any school represented on the Services; or use for data collection and/or profit is not allowed.

This license authorizes you to view, download, print, and access video, audio, graphics, photos, text, special features, and/or messages (collectively "Content") via the Services in accordance with the terms of this Agreement during the timeframe in which your account is active and for the duration of the access window for each individual Content item. Attn: General Counsel info@follettlearning.com
Fax: 630-850-1864

13. Arbitration/Choice of Law:

If you have any dispute with or claim against us (a "Claim") arising out of or relating to the Services or these Terms, including any Claim relating to your purchase of products through the Services, any communications between you and us, and the claim is not resolved by calling our customer service department at the telephone number provided on the "return policy" or "contact us" page of the Services, you and we each agree to resolve such disputes through an individual binding arbitration or an individual action in small claims court. Class arbitrations and class actions are not permitted, and your Claim may not be consolidated with any other person's claim. You and we agree that the U.S. Federal Arbitration Act governs the interpretation and enforcement of this provision and that you and we are each waiving the right to a trial by jury or to participate in a class action. This Section 13 shall survive termination of your use of the Services or any user account that you may have.

Before you commence an arbitration or file a small claims court action with respect to your Claim, you must first send to us a written notice of your claim ("Notice"). The Notice must (1) be sent by certified mail; (2) be addressed to Follett School Solutions, LLC, 1340 Ridgeview Dr., McHenry, IL 60050, Attn: General Counsel; (3) describe the nature of your Claim; and (4) specify the damages or other relief you seek. You must provide such a notice within one year after your Claim accrued. Otherwise, you waive the Claim. If we and you do not then resolve the Claim within 30 days after our receipt of your Notice is received, either you or we may commence arbitration or file a small claims court action to resolve the Claim.

Any such arbitration shall be administered by the American Arbitration Association and be conducted in accordance with its Consumer Arbitration Rules (the "Rules"). Contact information for the American Arbitration Association, as well as copies of the Rules and applicable forms, are available at www.adr.org or by calling the American Arbitration Association at (800)778-7879. In circumstances in which the Rules provide for an in-person hearing, such hearing will, at your request, take place in the U.S. county (or parish) of your residence, or otherwise in Chicago, IL. For any Claim that does not exceed $50,000, we will pay all filing and arbitrator's fees, unless the arbitrator finds the arbitration was frivolous or brought for an improper purpose. If the arbitrator awards you damages that are greater than our last written settlement offer communicated before commencement of the arbitration, we will pay you the greater of $1,000 or the amount of the award.

SHORTAGE OR DISPUTE, GOVERNMENTAL ACT, POWER FAILURE OR FAILURE OF THE INTERNET OR COMPUTER EQUIPMENT.

WE WILL NOT BE LIABLE TO YOU OR ANYONE ELSE FOR ANY SPECIAL, INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, EXEMPLARY, PUNITIVE OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES IN CONNECTION WITH THE SERVICES, YOUR USE OR INABILITY TO USE THE SERVICES OR ANY PRODUCTS PURCHASED THROUGH THE SERVICES, EVEN IF FORESEEABLE OR EVEN IF WE HAVE BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES. IN NO EVENT WILL OUR LIABILITY FOR OTHER DAMAGES EXCEED THE AMOUNT PAID BY YOU TO US IN CONNECTION WITH YOUR USE OF THE SERVICES (INCLUDING FOR ANY PRODUCTS PURCHASED THROUGH THE SERVICES) IN THE TWELVE MONTHS PRECEDING THE CLAIM.

SOME STATES DO NOT ALLOW THE EXCLUSION OR LIMITATION OF INCIDENTAL OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES, SO SOME OF THE ABOVE LIMITATIONS AND EXCLUSIONS MAY NOT APPLY TO YOU.

15. Indemnification

You agree to defend, indemnify and hold us harmless against any and all third party claims, damages, costs and expenses, including attorneys' fees, arising from or related to your use or misuse of the Services and/or your breach of these terms. These Terms, including any additional terms or policies posted on the Services, constitute the entire agreement between you and us, and supersede all prior agreements, with respect to the subject matter hereof. Our failure to exercise or enforce any right or provision in these Terms will not constitute a waiver of such right or provision. Nothing in these Terms affects any non-waivable statutory rights that apply to you. If any part of these Terms is determined to be invalid or unenforceable under applicable law, that provision will be removed, and the remainder of the Terms will continue to be valid and enforceable.

Eileen,

To address your request regarding Responsible Offeror Certification:

Responsible Offeror Certification

- a. “Responsible offeror” means a person who has the capability, in all respects, to perform fully the contract requirements and the moral and business integrity and reliability that will assure good faith performance, and who has been prequalified, if required.
Follett confirms.
- b. In determining whether an Offeror is responsible, the County will consider whether the Offeror has defaulted on any government contract in the last five years; whether any government has terminated a contract with the Offeror for cause in the last five years; and whether Offeror or any of its officers, directors, partners, or owners is currently barred from participating in any procurements by any federal, state, or local government agency.
Follett confirms.
- c. As part of its proposal, Offeror must certify that it has not defaulted on any government contract in the last five years or must explain any such default in reasonable detail. The County may deem any such explanation of default insufficient if it does not include contact information for the government on whose contract Offeror defaulted.
Follett confirms.
- d. As part of its submission, Offeror must certify that no government has terminated a contract with the Offeror for cause in the last five years or must explain any such termination for cause in reasonable detail. The County may deem any such explanation of termination for cause insufficient if it does not include contact information for the government that terminated a contract with the Offeror for cause.
Follett confirms
- e. As part of its submission, Offeror must certify that neither it nor any of its officers, directors, partners, or owners is currently barred from participating in any procurements by any federal, state, or local government body. If Offeror cannot make such certification, Offeror must explain any ban in reasonable detail. The County may deem any such explanation insufficient if it does not include contact information for the public body that barred Offeror or Offeror’s officer, director, partner, or owner from participating in any procurement on any federal, state, or local government body’s contract.
Follett confirms

- f. If the Offeror fails to submit certifications or explanations in accordance with this section, the Purchasing Division may require prompt submission of missing information and/or give a lowered evaluation of the proposal.
- g. The Offeror must notify the County immediately if the Offeror discovers that its certification was erroneous when submitted or has become erroneous.
Follett confirms
- h. The fact that an Offeror defaulted on a government contract in the last five years; the fact that a government terminated a contract with the Offeror for cause in the past five years; or the fact that Offeror or any of its officers, directors, partners, or owners has been barred from bidding on contracts by any federal, state, or local government body will not necessarily result in the County deeming the Offeror nonresponsible.
Follett confirms
- i. If it is later determined that the Successful Offeror knowingly made a false certification, the County may terminate the contract for cause.
Noted.

EXPERIENCE WITH THE PRE-K–12 MARKET AND SIMILAR PROJECTS

Since 1873, educators have trusted Follett as a partner in the mission to build confident, independent, and well-rounded students. Today, we support more than 45,000,000 students in 180 countries as a leading provider of educational materials and technology solutions to Grades PreK-12 schools.

Follett has been providing library materials and related services to the educational market since the Follett Library Book Company was created in 1940. Due to our decades of experience, librarians look to us for support when they are working to build upon or maintain their library collections. From our vast title selection to our specialized services, we help schools make their libraries centers for learning and discovery.

Over the past school year, we have provided over 647 large library projects (including 151 Opening Day Collections) for schools across the United States, with a total value of over $38.7M. Overall, these projects resulted in over two million units being shipped directly from our service center. For these projects, our in-house team of library curation experts created more than 176 custom lists that were curated to our customers' exact specifications.

Follett is committed to providing content solutions that work with the district's current system, SirsiDynix®. We work with many customers who have SirsiDynix as their library system software, and we have not encountered any reoccurring problems.

On all book jobbing, library collection development, and New School projects; our team members work together in a united effort to understand specific customer needs in order to provide the best products and services.

Our Sales team members are thoroughly knowledgeable about state requirements for school libraries and any state or federal changes that could affect school curriculum. They support our customers by collaborating directly with school staff members and consulting with district and state-level administration to fully understand their needs. They work diligently to share their expertise in selecting a wide range of educational materials so that our customers can make informed purchasing decisions.

Our world-class Customer Service team members are dedicated to helping educators and administrators manage and leverage their resources, so they can provide the best possible learning experiences for students. Since our focus is on K-12 school districts, our team members are highly familiar with the issues faced by our K-12 customers. Our Customer Service team assists customers by answering questions pertaining to the availability of titles, order status, shipping status, and any special requests that are unique to their district.

Our New School/Large Order (NSLO) team of experienced Coordinators was specifically put together to work directly with you on your library collection, large order, or classroom project. They handle communicating with you about the needs and requirements for your order, handing off your reviewed and approved order to our service center team for fulfillment, and working with your dedicated Sales Consultant on the collection delivery details.

Our Library Curation Team is a team of Masters-degree holding former educators and librarians. Our team has over 40 years of combined experience in selecting titles for our customers. By working collaboratively with Sales team members and their library customers, the Library Curation Team is able to build customized solutions of books and materials for school libraries. To keep up with growing trends and stay informed on school library needs, our team listens to webinars, reads articles and reviews within library journals, attends annual conferences, and most importantly meets with hundreds of publishers throughout the year to preview up-and-coming releases and provide feedback. With this knowledge, the team also takes into careful consideration the copyright date, popularity, reviews, favorite authors, knowledge of the publisher, overall book design, and text features when selecting titles.

PROJECT EXAMPLES:

For the project examples that have been provided in the tables on the following pages, Follett’s Library Curation, New School/Large Order (NSLO), Service Center, and Sales teams worked collaboratively to address each customer’s specific needs. Their overall teamwork on these projects has been summarized in the following steps:

Step 1: To begin each of these projects, Follett Sales team members met with the District to get a better understanding of their unique content needs and capture that information to share with the other Follett teams. The Sales team members then met internally with the Library Curations Team to determine which curation expert would be most applicable to the project based on their specific experience and background knowledge of the grade levels of the new school.

Step 2: The Library Curation team member (or members in some cases) assigned to project then began to work on creating a customized library collection. To complete this work, the team member stayed in close contact with both Sales and the customer in order to align titles to their specific demographic and curriculum needs.

Step 3: Once the curations work was completed, the Sales member(s) met with the district to ensure that the curated collection met their needs. If the district identified any areas of the collection that needed adjustment, the curated list was reverted back to the Library Curation Team to address those areas. Once we made sure the collection was satisfactory to the district, the Sales team member

Step 4: Once the collection was found to be satisfactory for the district, the Sales team member worked directly with one of Follett’s New School/Large Order (NSLO) Coordinators determining book cataloging and specifications. The assigned NSLO Coordinator then worked together with both the Sales team member and the district to ship out sample books to ensure the specifications are exactly as the district needs before finalizing the order.

Step 5: Once the order was set, our Service Center team members were able to pick, process, and pack the district’s new opening day collection books by hand to their exact specifications.

Step 6: While the order was being filled, the assigned NSLO Coordinator worked with the district to coordinate the white glove delivery. This included filling out a form that identifies potential hurdles, such as if the school had a second floor library with no elevator, or if Follett needed to cover flooring when unloading the pallets. Those details were then shared with the logistics partner that transported the items, in order to meet the expectations of the district.

Step 7: Once the delivery date was established, the NSLO Coordinator worked directly with the Follett Logistics Coordinator so they could begin putting together our shelving team for the delivery day. The Logistics Coordinator determined the amount of shelving team members needed based on factors such as the number of books and the layout of the school.

Step 8: Finally, the Sales team member communicated with the district to ensure we had met their expectations. They also will continue to provide ongoing support for these schools as the school grows and identifies any gaps in their content needs.

Savannah-Chatham County Public School System
New Hampstead K-8 School
Address:	1700 Highgate Boulevard Savannah, GA 31302
Curation Details:	To curate lists for the New Hampstead K-8 School, the Library Curation Team reviewed the Georgia State Standards to ensure that the nonfiction titles being provided would cover the areas being studied. The curated list included popular fiction across all genres, as well as Georgia state award winners. Due to the school having hi/low students, the Library Curation team also decided to include hi/low titles as well as large print titles to assist those students. To support the large population of Spanish speaking students at the school, the team created a bilingual, authentic, and translation Spanish book list to give the students a variety of books they could read.
Project Size/Amount:	$180,000 Additional subsequent orders have also been purchased.
Additional Services:	In-Service training was provided the Outside Sales Consultant. Additional troubleshooting was also provided as needed.

Forsyth County Schools
New Hope Elementary School
Address:	810 Castleberry Road Cumming, GA 30040
Curation Details:	For this New School opportunity, our Library Curation Team needed to collaborate with the Sales team member to quickly provide a comprehensive list in a short timeframe. At the time of list curation, a librarian had not been hired yet for the school. Because of this, our Sales team member needed to work directly with the school principal to understand their collection needs. The resulting list consisted of 60% Fiction titles, as well as Georgia State award winners and interest titles. Per the request of the district, we were also asked to remove LGBTQIA+ and Critical Race Theory titles from the list.
Project Size/Amount:	$58,000

Indicate the number of titles and volumes suitable for PreK-12 students available as of the bid date. Please provide this information between numbers for fiction and nonfiction. Indicate what percentage of your business is to school libraries.

Since 1873, educators have trusted Follett as a partner in the mission to build confident, independent, and well-rounded students. Today, we support more than 45,000,000 students in 180 countries as a leading provider of educational materials and technology solutions to Grades PreK-12 schools, which accounts for 100% of our business. We distribute books, reference materials, digital resources, eBooks and audiovisual materials, as well as new textbooks.

We annually ship over 16 million books to schools across the nation and around the world. We also annually process nearly 12 million books to shelf-ready condition. GENREFICATION SERVICES

If you are interested in organizing your library collection by genre, we can help you determine which categories you would like to use, how you would like the call numbers displayed on your labels, and how you would like genres identified in your library system. We also provide a large selection of genre labels to choose from, which visually identify a book's genre.

WHAT IS GENREFICATION?

Genrefication is organizing a library by subject and genre, more like a bookstore, to enable students to find materials more easily and improve circulation. The genres the library chooses can align with district suggestions or can support each school and its curriculum uniquely.

Follett's services are customized to meet each library's unique needs. Our genrefication services include:

- Onsite project management of the service
- Project planning and assistance with genre mapping
- Staffing, resources and materials needed to perform the work
- Population of genre information into Follett's Destiny® Library Manager system
- Post-genrefication collection analysis using Titlewave®

WHY SHOULD I GENREFY MY LIBRARY?

Here are some common reasons why libraries flip their collections to genre organization:

- To better tie the collection to and support the school curriculum
- To bring greater visibility to high-interest titles
- To help students and staff members more easily find reading materials they seek
- To expose students and staff to a more diverse selection of authors and reading
- To make students more independent library users, which saves staff time
- To motivate students to read more
- To increase circulation and support of school curriculum, which can help secure additional funding

Genres can be unique to an individual school library or a school district. District guidelines usually maintain an overall structure but give individual libraries some flexibility to meet their unique needs.

WHAT DOES A "TYPICAL" GENREFICATION PROJECT ENTAIL?

The word "typical" is emphasized because it's important to know that genrefication projects will differ from library to library. While there can be some commonality in approach, the decisions made are unique to the individual collections and curriculum goals of each school/library.

Here is a high-level overview of what's typically involved:

- Define the purpose of why you are genrefying and use it to guide your decisions during the project.
- Decide what to genrefy (most libraries choose to begin with their fiction collection)
- Identify which genres to use (genres can be unique to an individual school library or a district)
- Plan for what materials/staffing will be needed to support patron service interruptions
- Weed the collection in advance of the project to provide an accurate view of your collection and define areas for improvement going forward. (The TitleWise Collection Analysis that is available through Titlewave is a great way to start reviewing your collection for content that no longer provides value).
- Map all the materials in your collection to the correct genre
- Decide how to indicate genre on your library shelves (such as genre labels and signage)
- Update your Titlewave account to reflect your genre profile
- Decide how to identify genres in your library automation system (such as Follett's Destiny Library Manager solution)
- Plan and prepare the physical library space
- Plan and prepare the work of flipping the collection

GENRE LABELS AND SIGNAGE

Students and staff need to be able to find what they are looking for. It is important to clearly identify the genres on the physical materials. Common approaches include the use of genre labels, color association with genres and genre call number prefixes.

Each genre has an identifying label design that is applied on or near the spine to indicate which genre that copy is in. Some libraries choose to create their own labels and design. There are many options for labeling books: Follett Genre labels, Demco Genre labels and colored label protectors.

Shown below are just a few examples of Follett's Genre labels:

Example of PreK-2 Follett Genre Labels

SCIENCE FICTION

SPORTS FICTION

Example of Elementary Follett Genre Labels

SUPERNATURAL

DYSTOPIAN

GRAPHIC NOVELS

HUMOR

STORY COLLECTIONS

Example of High School Follett Genre Labels

Some librarians choose to use Genre call number prefixes instead of labels. This approach indicates the genre or a genre code as a prefix in your copy call number. Note that this can increase the physical work required to genrefy, since you must add the prefix values to your automation system data, print new spine labels and apply these labels to the collection.

With your collection reorganized, students and staff need signage to find the materials they are looking for. Signage is important! Common needs include poster/wall signs, genre section signs, and individual shelf signs. If you are using genre codes, such as a call number prefix, consider providing a reference table by your workstations.

Here are a few examples of Follett’s available Genre shelf strips and signs:

CONTENT CURATION SERVICES

The Library Curation team is available to help with building library collections for your school libraries. The team consists of Masters-degree holding former educators and librarians. Our team has over 40 years of combined experience in selecting titles for our customers. By working collaboratively with Sales team members and their library customers, the Library Curation Team is able to build customized solutions of books and materials for school libraries. To keep up with growing trends and stay informed on school library needs, our team listens to webinars, reads articles and reviews within library journals, attends annual conferences, and most importantly meets with hundreds of publishers throughout the year to preview up-and-coming releases and provide feedback. With this knowledge, the team also takes into careful consideration the copyright date, popularity, reviews, favorite authors, knowledge of the publisher, overall book design, and text features when selecting titles.

This expert team will build your collection book-by-book based on your specific criteria, such as: materials budget, curriculum, state awards and interests, reading programs, teacher requests, Hi-Lo materials, and World Language titles. The resulting library collection list will contain comprehensive data for each title, such as the Dewey number, genre, copyright year, author, annotation, publisher, binding type, review sources, awards, interest and reading levels, price and number of pages. Your Media Specialist will be able to view the library collection list of titles in a hard copy printout, or electronically in an Excel spreadsheet or via Titlewave.

DIVERSITY & SEL ANALYSIS TOOL IN TITLEWAVE

Follett understands the importance of providing students with materials that allow them to see a reflection of themselves, as well as provide a larger window to the world around them—celebrating a better understanding of ourselves, as well as the differences that drive cultural, economic, and social innovation. To that end, we’ve developed a suite of integrated analysis tools to help you discover, manage and report on over 40 diversity-related topics and 16 topics covering SEL. This allows you to ensure alignment with the needs of your students, and maximize the impact of your purchases against funding and content goals.

Our mission is to provide tools and resources to easily discover quality, relevant content over a wide range of topics such as gender, culture, religion, family, socio-economics, age or ability. For any given title (whether you're searching, browsing, or building a list) we identify all the relevant topics that map to that particular book. This allows you to quickly identify books that support your current needs or interests. Often times a single title may touch on several topics, so it's easy to see the "diversity footprint" of a particular title. Because most things in Titlewave are clickable, it's easy to find even more great content covering a specific topic simply by clicking the topic name.

Once you've spent time carefully building your list, we provide tools to analyze the content you've selected before placing your order. ASSESS TitleWise, our powerful collection analysis tool, will help you quickly diagnose your library’s strengths and weaknesses, plan an effective weeding strategy, and make smarter purchasing decisions in the future.

A healthy collection fuels learning and student achievement. However, there is no one-size-fits-all solution. Not all students have the same needs and interests, and not all schools serve the same community. To ensure a well-rounded collection, you need insight into your materials to know what’s working and why it’s working (or where it’s not working) then plan your goals, decisions, and actions accordingly.

The extensive, easy-to-understand dashboard is designed to help you assess the overall health of your collection. We break down your collection by important characteristics—fiction vs. nonfiction, classification, age, interest and reading levels, as well as diversity and SEL topics—to help you gain a thorough understanding of exactly what you own and which areas are thriving, as well as those that may be inadequately represented or contain old and outdated content.

While the collection overview gives you a comprehensive, bird’s-eye view of your entire library, there’s additional insight to be gained by examining specific areas more closely.

With Diversity and SEL, you can look closer at the specific topics covered by your collection. For each topic, you can see how many titles you have, the average age of those titles, and the balance of fiction vs. nonfiction. This allows you to assess which areas of interest are well-represented, in addition to specific topics that are covered by only a few titles.

Diversity

Developing a collection that reflects cultural diversity can improve how students view and accept themselves and others. See how your materials are distributed across diversity topics — then focus on weeding outdated or stereotypical information and addressing gaps.

Diversity Overview by Topic

This breakdown helps you easily determine how your collection is balanced across diverse topics. Click on a particular topic name to see a breakdown of items in that topic by decade and classification.

Please note: a single title may feature multiple diversity-related topics.

Topic	Avg. Age	Nonfiction	Fiction	Other	Items
Abuse	2003	—	17	6	23	Search for ...
African American	2003	55	148	173	376	Search for ...

Discrimination & Prejudice	2006	18	65	29	112	Search for ...
Diverse Families	2004	11	278	38	327	Search for ...

You can increase the magnification level even further. By clicking on a specific topic, you'll see a detailed breakdown of the titles you own in that area broken-down by Dewey and classification. You'll be able to review not only how many titles you have, but exactly what subjects they cover. Additionally, we also provide a detailed breakdown by decade — because it's not simply a matter of having enough books on the shelves, it's also about ensuring the relevance and accuracy of the materials.

Questions and Answers
April 5, 2023

1. Where should Attachment E/Certificate of Insurance be included in the proposal?
Answer: Only the Successful Offeror will be required to provide the Certificate of Insurance.
2. Appendix 3 lists ISBN 9781624061547 for the title "Two Truths and a Lie". However, that ISBN is for the title "Divergent". Which title should we use?
Answer: Corrected – See attached Revised Appendix 3
3. Appendix 3 lists ISBN 9780195128789 for the title "50 Events that Shaped American History: An Encyclopedia of the American Mosaic. However, that ISBN is for the title "The Oxford Dictionary of American Arts and artist". Which title should we use?
Answer: Corrected– See attached Revised Appendix 3
4. Appendix 3, Line item 6, is not available as a box set. Should I include the individual items the set is composed of?
Answer: Item 6 is an individual book, so there is not a box set associated with this item
5. How many schools currently use theft detection? What theft is used?
Answer: None of our schools use theft detection.
6. How many schools are currently using the school labels?
Answer: For required labels refer to specific instructions for attaching labels in Section II.B.6. Processing Specifications (pages 5-6).
7. Will the district sign an NDA in order for financial information to be shared?
Answer: No, HCPS will not sign an NDA. If the offeror has proprietary information within their proposal, they will need to address that in Attachment D.
8. Attachment C is for the Virginia State Corporation Commission (SCC). However, Tab 7 for References indicates that there should be a form for references, also referred to as Attachment C. Can you provide the appropriate attachment for references?
Answer: Attachment C is correct for the SCC information. Item 7, Tab 6 References – Offerors shall provide the requested information in this tab but there is no Attachment for this. See Addendum 2

Answer: See Addendum 1 regarding the date change. No, Offerors cannot schedule a specific time slot.

10. Appendix 3, line 3. The ISBN listed is a match to a DVD called Divergent but the line is listed as a book called Two Truths and a Lie. Do we follow the ISBN or the Title? If it's the title do you have a new ISBN number?

Answer: See response to Question #2 Corrected– See attached Revised Appendix 3

11. Sec.II.B.10 – Service Requirements –The Successful Offeror Shall provide a complete online listing of titles available, updated at least semi-annually. Would our online catalog suffice for this need, which is updated daily with a new availability?

12. Sec.VIII.B.5 – Tab 4 e and f – Confirm that you do not require any physical books be sent for samples: only an order confirmation (section e) of the titles on Appendix 1, and MARC records (both electronically and on paper) for the titles on Appendix 3.

 520 _a"Hop on the bike with Bessie Stringfield, the motorcycle queen of Miami. In 1929, 18-year-old Bessie Stringfield hopped on her motorcycle and headed out on an adventure, an unusual choice for a young Black woman at the time. Paying her way by winning motorcycle races, she criss-crossed the country through small towns, big cities, and wide open spaces. But not everyone was happy to see Bessie's brown face peeking out from underneath her helmet. And more than once, Bessie found herself making some quick exits on the back of her bike to escape Jim Crow. A trailblazer in the world of women's racing and motorcycling, Bessie Stringfield was a figure who will inspire all children to pursue their dreams"--Provided by publisher.

 520 _a"When Springville residents--at least the ones still alive--are questioned about what happened on prom night, they all have the same explanation--Maddy did it. An outcast at her small-town Georgia high school, Madison Washington has always been a teasing target for bullies. And she's dealt with it because she has more pressing problems to manage. Until the morning a surprise rainstorm reveals her most closely kept secret: Maddy is biracial. She has been passing for white her entire life at the behest of her fanatical white father, Thomas Washington. After a viral bullying video pulls back the curtain on Springville High's racist roots, student leaders come up with a plan to change their image: host the school's first integrated prom as a show of unity. The popular white class president convinces her Black superstar quarterback boyfriend to ask Maddy to be his date, leaving Maddy wondering if it's possible to have a normal life. But some of her classmates aren't done with her just yet. And what they don't know is that Maddy still has another secret--one that will cost them all their lives"--Provided by 520 _a"Seventh grader Jordan Banks loves nothing more than drawing cartoons about his life. But instead of sending him to the art school of his dreams, his parents enroll him in a prestigious private school known for its academics, where Jordan is one of the few kids of color in his entire grade.

 As he makes the daily trip from his Washington Heights apartment to the upscale Riverdale Academy Day School, Jordan soon finds himself torn between two worlds--and not really fitting into either one. Can Jordan learn to navigate his new school culture while keeping his friends and staying true to himself?"--Provided by publisher.
